Despite Objections

P&Z Okays Retail Zoning

By PAM TROBOY

Faith in the fair market system held the balance Monday night with the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Commissioners approved 16.6 acres of planned development-retail zoning on the northwest corner of the Parker-Coit roads intersection over the objections of their planner, Bob Buffington.

He pointed out that 134 acres of retail zoning already exist within a mile radius of the major west Plano intersection.

Buffington explained that if all retail developed, it could serve a population of 29,000. However, projections show that only 27,000 people will live in the area.

Such a situation is considered "in balance" because of the problems of exact predictions; but if additional retail were added to the area, the balance would be thrown off, he suggested.

Robert Pope noted that when retail property in west Plano was in the hands of only a few owners, it was withheld from the market. Only in recent years, he said, when retail zoning was granted for other landowners, have the developments occurred.

Jim Edwards agreed, pointing out that a recent market survey showed Plano is losing business it should retain. Although stressing that he saw no reason for turning down the current request, Edwards suggested that the southwest corner of the intersection be changed to single family on the master plan.

The southeast corner of the intersection is developing as single family homes and Buffington expressed concern over the maintenance of the area if three corners were zoned for retail.

The remainder of the 88.8 acre tract was approved for 14.8 acres of 2F-3 duplexes and 57.4 acres of SF-2. Owned by the W.D. Wells Estate, it will be developed by Kendrick Development.

In other action, a public hearing on the annexation and zoning of 73 acres on White Rock Road west of Coit Road was recessed until a road alignment can be worked out among adjacent property owners.

First National Bank of Dallas had planned an unacceptable connection of the extension of W. 15th Street with the extension of Dallas North Parkway.

One More Jail Change Approved

The second change order in two weeks—and the sixteenth since construction began—was approved by the Commissioners Court Monday morning for the new courthouse-jail complex at Davis and McDonald Streets in McKinney.

Architect Rich Morgan of Jarvis Putty Jarvis requested an addition of $3,240 for floor drains and attendant piping on the third floor of the jail structure to allow for future expansion of additional jail cells.

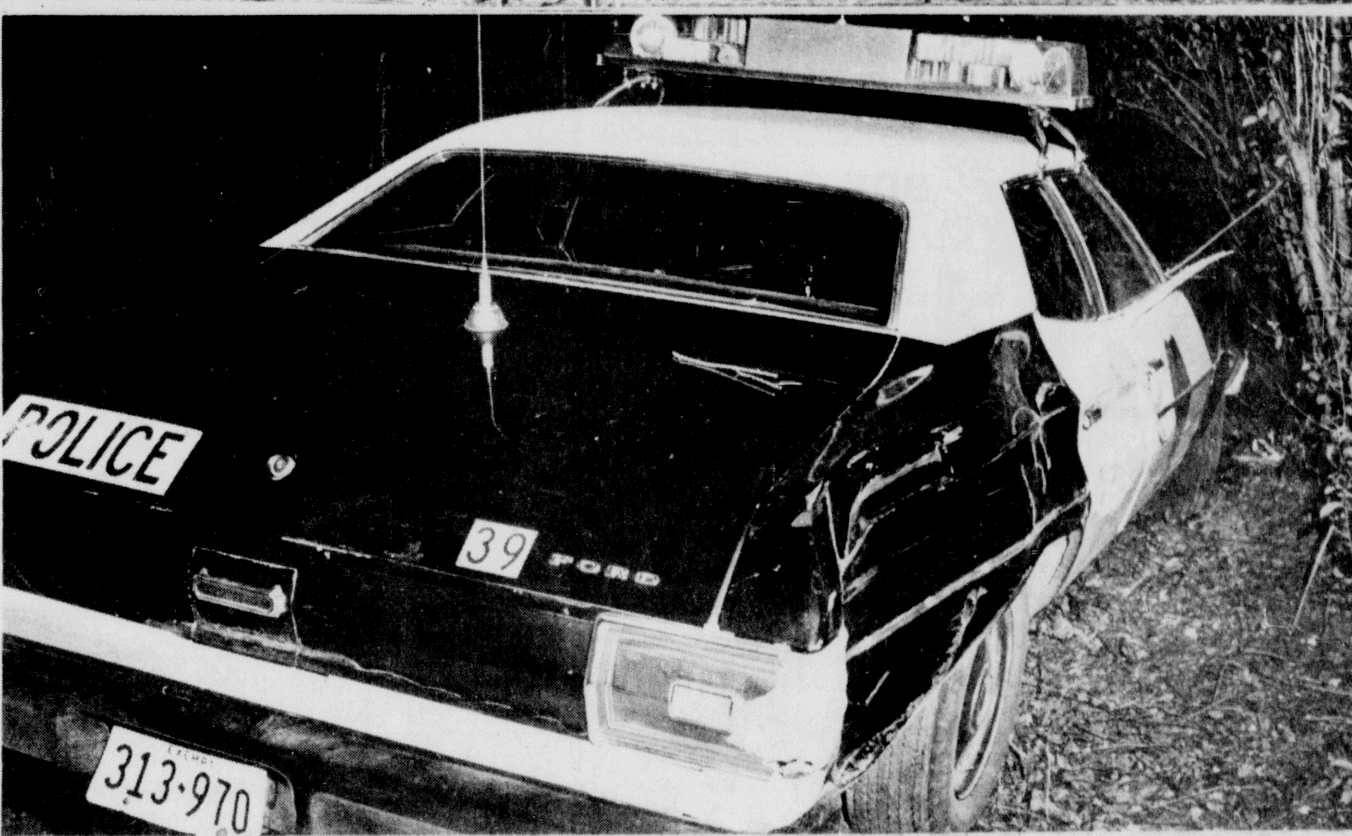

Plans call for only the first two floors of the jail to be operational when the facility is completed some time in June of 1978. The third floor will be expanded when necessary.

Morgan said that approval of the floor drains at this time would affect long-range cost savings when the time for expansion arrives. The commissioners approved the request unanimously.

In other action, the court okayed property management standards as an amendment to the operation and maintenance agreement for county flood prevention structures with the Soil and Water Conservation Service. Also approved was a request to advertise for bids for a three-quarter ton pickup for Precinct 1.

Commissioners gave the go-ahead to the preliminary sub-division plat for Horseshoe Bend Addition on Highway 720 approximately one-half mile west of McKinney's city limits.

Tabled were items concerning an agreement with Texas Power and Light Co. regarding relocation of utility poles on FM Highway 3364 and a request of revision of a plat back to acreage by O.A. Sellers.

After the Chase

When this stolen car is returned to its Dallas owner, he probably won't be too happy to get the 1974 Cadillac back. A 17-year-old Dallas man and a Plano juvenile led Plano and Richardson police on a pre-midnight chase Monday night that left the Cadillac demolished, a Volkswagen heavily damaged, a Plano patrol car with slight damage and the two suspects, the driver of the Volkswagen and a Plano officer with minor injuries. The chase began at 11:48 p.m. and Officer Dave Howell wrecked out near the intersection of W. 15th and Westwood while the Cadillac continued to US 75 and down to Richardson. Trying to elude a road block, the suspects crossed to the access road, ran a red light at Arapaho, hit the bus, spun around and hit a signal pole. The juvenile was released to his parents, but the 17-year-old is being held for auto theft. (Staff photos by Mike Newman).

Christmas Vacationers Start Fires

Seven grass fires, apparently set by children on their first day of Christmas vacation, kept firefighters busy Monday afternoon.

Fire Marshal Bill Threet said the fires were started by youngsters playing with matches. He noted that unsupervised children particularly in the 8 to 12 age group often give the fire department a lot of unnecessary work during holidays.

The first blaze was reported at 1:26 p.m. on the southwest corner of Custer and Parker roads. Other fires reported were at 2:14 p.m. at the intersection of US 75 and Dallas North Parkway, at 2:21 p.m. in the front yard of 201 Glacier, at 3:35 p.m. in the yard of 3320 Garner, at 4:55 p.m. under the stairs at Timber Forest, at 5:10 p.m. near the intersection of 14th and Ridgcrest and at 5:17 p.m. east of Peachtree in a field.

Plano, Wylie Recognized County 'Football Capital'

Noting that the residents of Collin County "should have reason to feel like we've had twins this weekend," County Judge Nathan E. White Jr. presented a unanimously-approved resolution honoring the Plano Wildcats and the Wylie Pirates to the Commissioners Court yesterday morning.

White christened the county the "High School Football Capital of the State of Texas" in recognizing Plano's 1977 AAAA title and Wylie's 1977 AA title. The Wildcats won their crown Saturday 13-10 over the Port Neches-Groves Indians while the Pirates beat the Bellville Brahmas 22-14 also on Saturday.

Besides presenting the official proclamation, which will be forwarded to each school, the county judge also suggested that pictures of each team be brought to McKinney to hang in the courthouse lobby.

White also asked that the county's past state championship teams—the 1965, 1967 and 1971 Plano Wildcats and the 1974 Celina Bobcats—also provide photographs to hang in the courthouse lobby.

As "something to think about for the future" White added that signs marking the Collin County lines might also include a reference to the county's championship football teams.

The Commissioners Court resolution reads as follows:

"Whereas, High School Football is an integral part of the life of Texas cities, towns and villages; and

"Whereas, Collin County has traditionally had its share of winning football teams, along with excellent supporting bands, drill teams, pep squads, cheerleaders, and fans; and

"Whereas, the Wylie Pirate Football Team, did, on Saturday, Dec. 17, 1977, in the City of Waco, Texas, defeat the Bellville Brahmas, by a score of 22-14, thereby winning the coveted Class AA Football State Championship; and

"Whereas, the Plano Wildcat Football Team did on Saturday, Dec. 17, 1977 in the City of Irving, Texas, before the largest crowd ever to witness a high school football game in Texas, defeat the Port Neches-Groves Indians, by a score of 13-10, thereby winning the coveted Class AAAA Football State Championship; and

"Whereas, the spirit, character and determination demonstrated by these young men of Collin County is a reflection of the quality of their respective coaches, parents, schools and fans; and

"Whereas, only twice before in Texas have two teams in the same county won State Championships in the same year; and

"Whereas, all Collin County citizens share the joy, honor and pride that these two teams have brought their respective towns and schools and to our county;

"Therefore, be it resolved by the Commissioners Court of Collin County that sincerest congratulations on behalf of all Collin County citizens be extended to the Plano Wildcats and the Wylie Pirates for their outstanding performances; and

"Be it further resolved, that in honor of these two championship teams, Collin County be declared the High School Football Capital of the State of Texas."

State Game Memories Still Linger

Graduates Recall Past Victories

By TERRI ANDERSON

When the Plano Wildcats made the move from AAA to AAAA in 1972, they faced a lot of changes—bigger schools, tougher teams, more prestige. But State Championship football games, whether in AAA or AAAA, carry the same excitement, and the memories of those games can last a lifetime.

For students currently attending Plano High School, Saturday's championship win over Port Neches-Groves was a day of unparalleled "Cat Scratch Fever." For PHS students who attended school when the Wildcats won their last championship—the AAA crown in 1971—it was a time to reminisce.

"Wildcat spirit hasn't changed," remarked former cheerleader Beth Cardwell Jones. "It's still here. It's always here."

"That's because we're always winners," interjected fellow cheerleader Darlene Nelson.

"I just wish I was back down there instead of up here," added Gailyn Toler Hefty, gazing onto the sidelines where the '77 cheerleaders stood.

Wildcat fans may still be basically the same, the girls pointed out, but there certainly are more of 'em now. When Plano won the AAA title in 1971, some 18,000 people lived in the city. That means more fans attended the AAAA game Saturday than even lived in Plano during the last state playoff.

One of the most frequently recalled incidents of the 1971 game with Gregory-Portland was a last ditch field goal attempt by the opposing team during the final few seconds of the game. Thousands of fans crowded the sidelines. If the field goal was good, Gregory-Portland would be State Champs.

"I couldn't look," Darlene Nelson recalled. "We just put our arms around each other and shut our eyes."

When the Plano fans went into a frenzy, Darlene and the other cheerleaders knew the kick went awry and the Wildcats had won another state title to add to their 1965 and 1967 AA wins.

Rucker Lewis, the quick-footed number 35 who added touchdowns to the Plano side of the scoreboard in the '70, '71 and '72 football seasons, also admitted that this year's state game brought back fond memories.

"Those guys out there today will remember this day more than anything in their lives," Lewis predicted. "The state game I played in (as a junior) is something I look back on all the time."

"What do I remember most about the last state game?" mullied ex-cheerleader and 1973 graduate Nancy Wells Warder. "I remember thinking this was our last year in 3-A and we'd never make it in 4-A! But I was wrong, obviously."

Almost everyone—not just Nancy Warder—had similar feelings. Class AAAA would be a lot tougher. But the determined Wildcats refused to believe the going was harder. The team managed to win its district and advance to the quarterfinals in its debut AAAA year before falling to Dallas Skyline.

And the 'Cats have represented District 13-AAAA every year save one since entering the "tougher" classification.

"I've come to watch this game today because it's in my blood," Nancy added. "My husband (a Grand Prairie graduate) has adopted the Wildcats as his team too. That's the way it is with all cheerleaders' husbands. They don't have any choice."

Perhaps one of the Wildcats' most devoted fans both in the 1971 season and today is former mascot Doug Damewood, now a history teacher at Plano's Vines High School.

Damewood, described as a very "vocal" fan by many of his contemporaries, said that "nerves" and "disbelief" described the '71 state game best.

"We were just in awe," the 1972 PHS graduate remembered. "I just stood around on the field after the game was over and just walked around. It was fantastic."

Damewood said he thought this year's championship served to bring back some of the small town spirit Plano possessed when the town's population was still under 20,000. It also helped pull the students of Vines and Williams High Schools together, he added.

"The fans are always the same though," he concluded. "Plano has some of the most spirited fans around and they never change."

Some 50,000 fans watched the 1977 AAAA championship game. It was an exciting experience...for winners and losers. But the game didn't end when the final gun sounded. For the hundreds of Plano cheerleaders, football players, band, drill team and pep squad members, and, of course, fans, the game will be relived again and again in the post-graduation years.

Former Plano running back Rucker Lewis claims Saturday's State Championship football game will be something the Wildcats will remember all their lives. Lewis helped the offensive endeavor in the 1971 Class AAA state win. (Staff photo by Richard LaGow).

Navy 'Basics' Completed By Recruit

Navy Seaman Recruit David A. Dodson, son of Esther K. Dodson of 3457 Westminster, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

During the eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

Candidate Against Hospital Guides

The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare is making a grave mistake by proposing strict regulations which would force many Texas hospitals to close, Attorney General candidate Mark White said recently.

"I am pleased that HEW Secretary Joseph Califano has publicly said that these proposed 'guidelines' will be revised," said White. "But the point is that they should never have been written in the first place."

"Eighty-nine percent of our 490 short term care hospitals in Texas could not meet these unreasonable guidelines. This is a perfect example of federal bureaucrats using their power in attempt to legislate."

"In this particular case, the effects would be so widespread and disastrous that they were forced—or at least they have promised to—back down."

White made his remarks in a luncheon speech to the Grayson County Bar Association.

"There are many cases in which federal bureaucrats run rampant over the rights of people simply because their rules and regulations go unchallenged," White said.

"Many of the injustices they inflict upon the taxpayers are less noticeable than the proposed hospital regulations, which undoubtedly would result in denying medical care to a great many Texans in rural areas."

"Unfortunately, the bureaucrats' power to create rules and regulations goes virtually unchecked on the federal level. Up until very recently, this was also the case on the state level," said White.

White explained that the last state legislature passed a recommendation of the Hobby Commission, while he was Secretary of State, which allows them to at least review the agency's proposals and issue an opinion."

"The hospital situation is especially ironic because we have spent many millions of dollars in Hill-Burton funds building hospitals in Texas, under the supervision of federal bureaucrats, and now another set of bureaucrats says we can no longer operate them."

R. Drawbaugh Ends Specialist's Training

Private Robert Drawbaugh, son of Mrs.

Barbara Drawbaugh, of Plano, recently completed training as an armor reconnaissance specialist under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program at Ft. Knox, Ky.

OSUT is a 13-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

Students received instruction in the use of various kinds of weapons, maintenance of armor vehicles, map reading, communications, artillery adjustments, and mines and demolitions.

Pvt. Drawbaugh entered the Army last August. He is a 1977 graduate of Plano High School.

Carter to Try in '80?

Jimmy's Wife Says Second Term Sought

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Senior Editor
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rosalynn Carter indicates the president of the United States looks toward a second term in the White House.

The first lady, in a discussion of her husband's push on the controversial energy bill, said the president "could delay his push for comprehensive congressional action until the second term, but Jimmy just doesn't work that way."

Mrs. Carter hedged a bit, however, saying, "We really haven't talked about it."

"The second term depends on what he has gotten done, what will be done," Mrs. Carter said in an interview. "There are some decisions ahead."

Mrs. Carter was talking in an exclusive UPI interview in her modest-sized, Christmas-decorated office in the East Wing of the White House.

After a year in the White House, Mrs. Carter has changed, by her own admission. "It all is so overwhelming, so awesome, you have to worry about priorities. But I've been pleased."

"It's hard to say what has been the most satisfying ... I've done so much. There was the trip to Latin America to study first, to meet leaders, to see the move toward democracy ... very exciting. In Latin America, I saw countries working toward democracy, yet so weak financially ..."

Mrs. Carter will accompany the president on an eight-day sweep of six countries from Dec. 29 to Jan. 6. The countries are Poland, Iran, India, Saudi Arabia, France and Belgium.

"And all this time I've been studying Spanish," said the first lady, who is not conversant in any other foreign language. "But I have plans to visit children's hospitals, an old people's town, in India to meet with women on health concerns, in France to check what I hear are very good programs for the aged ..."

On the Middle East and the breakthrough with Israeli and Egyptian leaders talking peace, she said:

"Jimmy thinks you have to get problems out in the open, you have to have some discussions before you start accomplishing ..."

She brushes off without rancor the criticisms of her first year performance.

"I just don't agree," she said of the current Ms magazine issue which headlined a section, "Betty Ford, Where Are You Now That We Need You?" and talked of the "dashed-hopes syndrome" and "creeping disappointment with this quiet, self-contained Southerner ..."

Said Mrs. Carter, "Jimmy says, 'Whatever you do will be criticized. If you do nothing, there is no criticism.'"

Mrs. Carter made other points:

—She plans to go to Plains, Ga., for Christmas with the whole family, and then prep for the post-Christmas trip abroad.

—If passage of the Equal Rights Amendment becomes critical, she will "hit the road" to campaign for its enactment. Her own state, Georgia, has not ratified the amendment. "Thinking back," she said, "We should have been campaigning earlier and more forcefully."

—The coming year will be "the year of the economy."

—Her mail runs generally in her favor with "few hate letters."

I asked her what would be her wish for America and the world in 1978.

"That's a tough one," she said. "One of the things that bothers me most is the destruction of family ... Everyone needs someone to care for them."

"I've been happy in 1977. My wish for 1978 is that people can feel they belong, can contribute. You see so many people hurting and in distress, and nobody caring."

U. S. consumes less lamb

U.S. consumption of lamb is down from a high of 6 pounds per person in 1930 and 1940 to about 1 and one-half pounds in 1976.

Our consumption is among the world's lowest. High-consuming countries are in Oceania, the Middle East, and the British Isles — with Australia, at 43 pounds per capita, the highest in the world.

New Calendars Draw From Nature

NEW YORK (UPI) — The calendar year of 1978 reflects the back to nature movement with a 12-month celebration of wildlife, pets, plants, scenery and natural foods.

Ninety-eight percent of American households will have at least one calendar for the new year in a variety of forms — wall, desk, appointment or pocket, according to the Advertising Specialty Association. Industry sources estimate the paper calendar business tops $400 million a year and increases about 10 percent a year, not counting the popular linen calendar wall hangings that put kitsch in a multitude of kitchens.

Americans pay for only about 17 percent of the calendars they use. They can purchase them at stationery and book stores as well as supermarkets and museum gift shops.

The remaining 83 percent are freebies from American business, ranging from the giant Exxon Corp. to the local mortician who can generally be counted on to send a religious calendar, which has become something of a rarity in recent years.

Free calendars cost businesses anywhere from a few cents for pocket calendars up to $6 for wall calendars illustrated with fine arts reproductions or the works of contemporary artists. Ciba-Geigy's outsized photo calendar of breathtaking Swiss scenes puts the international pharmaceutical firm near the top of the list of expensive gratis calendars.

A UPI survey of representative calendars shows that the 1978 World Wildlife Year must have been foremost in the minds of calendar designers when they decided the priority of scenes for 1978 calendars two years ago. Star Wars calendars may not show up until 1979 or 1980.

Universe Calendar, one of the leaders in the appointment calendar field, offers a photographic gallery of pets, with tips on care and feeding, and a wall calendar titled "A Pride of Cats," illustrated with paintings and sculpture from museum collections.

Universe also has published a bouquet of a calendar book featuring enchanting wildflower photographs accompanied by appropriate literary quotations and another with luscious photo closeups of vegetables and fruit. Elizabeth Post, author of the Emily Post etiquette books, has created for Stancraft Products a unique coloring book calendar for children full of delightfully sketched woods creatures. She plumps painlessly for good manners by means of couplets such as "Don't stretch too far to left or right! Please pass the salt is more polite." At 99 cents, its one of the calendar bargains of the year.

There are calendars that will appeal to fishing enthusiasts, gardening buffs, tropical fish connoisseurs, skiers, boaters and swimmers. If the thing you most like about swimming is girls in bikinis, there's the 43rd edition of the Ridge Tool Company's girly calendar, the most widely distributed in the nation. Bikini beauties holding Ridge's Ridgid products adorn 600,000 copies mailed free to company customers.

Among the more attractive calendars for young people and the young-at-heart are Determined Production's desk calendar illustrated with the cartoon characters of the Peanuts strip and Random House's Sesame Street calendar that takes the Muppets around the world in 365 days. Hallmark offers Winnie the Pooh and Mickey Mouse calendars and an amusingly illustrated Guinness Calendar of World Records. For Kate Greenaway fans, Universe has issued a quaint Calendar of Games.

Children themselves have created the U.N. Children's Fund calendar in line with tradition. The UNICEF desk calendar has interpretations of the Tree of Life by young artists from all corners of the globe and its wall calendar illustrates leisure activities in 12 countries.

Cooking retains its popularity as a theme. Standard Brands has the most useful, the "Creative Cook's Menu Planning Calendar," which contains food weights and measures, menu planning hints, space for shopping lists, recipes and grocery savings coupons.

Japan Airlines has published another in its series of gorgeously illustrated calendars portraying the art treasures of Japan from public and private collections, selling for $4.95. The ultimate in graphics beauty is Oxford University Press' quintecenary Almanack Calendar illustrated with engravings and watercolors.

For the feminists there's a Woman's Calendar from Universe that lists 365 steppingstones and setbacks in the battle for women's rights and recognition, from the birth of Betsy Ross on Jan. 1, 1752, to the Cincinnati Boxing Commission's decision not to allow women to box on Dec. 31, 1976.

Deadlines Approach At TCU

Applications for 1978-79 Nordan Fine Arts Scholarships are being accepted now at Texas Christian University.

Deadlines of Feb. 1 for music, ballet-modern dance and theatre applications and March 15 for art were announced by Dean George T. Tade of the School of Fine Arts.

Chosen of the basis of competitive auditions and personal interviews, undergraduates are awarded $8,000 over a four-year period and graduate students $4,000 over two years. The scholarships are normally renewable yearly.

The L.A. Nordans of San Antonio, who began the awards program with a gift to TCU in 1965, were major supporters of the San Antonio Symphony Society and Opera Association.

A recipient of the honorary LL.D. degree from TCU in 1964, the late Dr. Nordan was cited for "leadership in cultural activities and educational betterment."

Additional information and application forms for the Nordan Fine Arts Scholarships are available from TCU's School of Fine Arts, Fort Worth 76129.

Applicants must be accepted for admission to the University before the grants can be given. Announcement of scholarship winners for music, theater and dance will be made soon after March 1 and for art soon after April 1.

Doctors Will Compare Animals With People

The program of Comparative Medicine—studies which deal with the relationship of human and animal diseases—has now been established in the Department of Pathology at The University of Texas

Southwestern Medical School.

Chairman of the division is Steven P. Pakes, D.V.M., Ph.D., who is also director of the Animal Resources Center, announced Dr. Charles C. Sprague, president of The U.T. Health Sciences Center.

TI Picks Leader Of New Division

Dr. George Heilmeier, formerly director of the defense Advanced Research Projects Agency, Washington, D.C., has joined Texas Instruments Incorporated as vice president. He is the director of a newly established System Technology Laboratory.

Group Vice President Grant A. Dove said the new laboratory will use technologies across TI with particular emphasis on coupling the company's capabilities in semiconductor technology with its business thrusts in equipment and services.

Dr. Heilmeier has had a distinguished career in both private industry and government. In 1970 he was a White House Fellow and served as a special assistant to the secretary of defense. In 1971 he became assistant director of defense research and engineering, responsible for all Department of Defense research and exploratory development in electronic, physical and computer sciences. He was made director of the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency in 1975.

He is a native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering with distinguished honors from the University of Pennsylvania in 1958.

He continued his studies after joining the technical staff of RCA Laboratories and earned M.S.E., M.A., and Ph. D. degrees in solid state electronics from Princeton University in 1960, 1961, and 1962, respectively.

The Division is to carry on education and research in the study and development of animal models for human diseases; in studies of animal diseases that complicate biomedical research and studies to determine process, treatment and prevention of animal disease.

Current research projects being conducted in the Division of Comparative Medicine include studies of rotavirus infections in mice and possible use of animal rotavirus infections to map control measures for such infections in humans.

King's Table:

Home-Style Cooked Meals

At Reasonable Prices Featured

During the hustle-bustle time of the Holiday season, it is often difficult to find time to prepare a well-balanced meal for the family.

So, why settle for the fast food places when a home cooked style meal is available at International King's Table, the American Smorgasbord located in the Palisades Square in Plano.

Easy access from U.S. 75 service road makes King's Table just as quick to get to as a fast food place. And, their well supplied cafeteria style serving line makes it easy to get the items you want.

Plus, their spacious, pleasant dining room makes it seem like a much more expensive restaurant.

But, King's Table is easy on the pocketbook. So easy on the pocketbook, that families can easily afford to eat there. Adults can have all they want to eat at dinner time (4:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.) for only $3.09 each. And, children 0-1 years eat free, 2-7 years eat for 59 cents, while 8-12 years eat for $1.09.

Beverages are extra cost on all meals.

King's Table specializes in home cooked type meals with a lot of nourishment in a Christian atmosphere.

Each guest at King's Table selects their own food from a well-arranged display—both hot and cold foods. Salads are available, a choice of meat dishes, vegetables and fruits.

Menus change everyday and popular foods are always available.

King's Table is also the place to eat at lunchtime. Adults eat for only $2.09 at lunch excluding beverage.

How is King's Table able to bring such quality and service to Plano at such a low cost? They are one of several King's Table restaurants in the Dallas area which bulk buy their needed products. Their savings is passed right along to the consumer.

All products bought and served are selected for their freshness and quality—nothing second rate is ever served at King's Table and it is that reputation that has seen the chain grow by leaps and bounds.

King's Table offers a special discount card to senior citizens. Cost of the card is only $1 that will provide a 40 cent discount on all meals served after 1:30 p.m. on lunches and all suppers on Mondays through Thursdays. The card is also applicable on lunches on Fridays and Saturdays.

"Family Dining" is emphasized at King's Table where no cigarette machines or alcoholic beverages are sold.

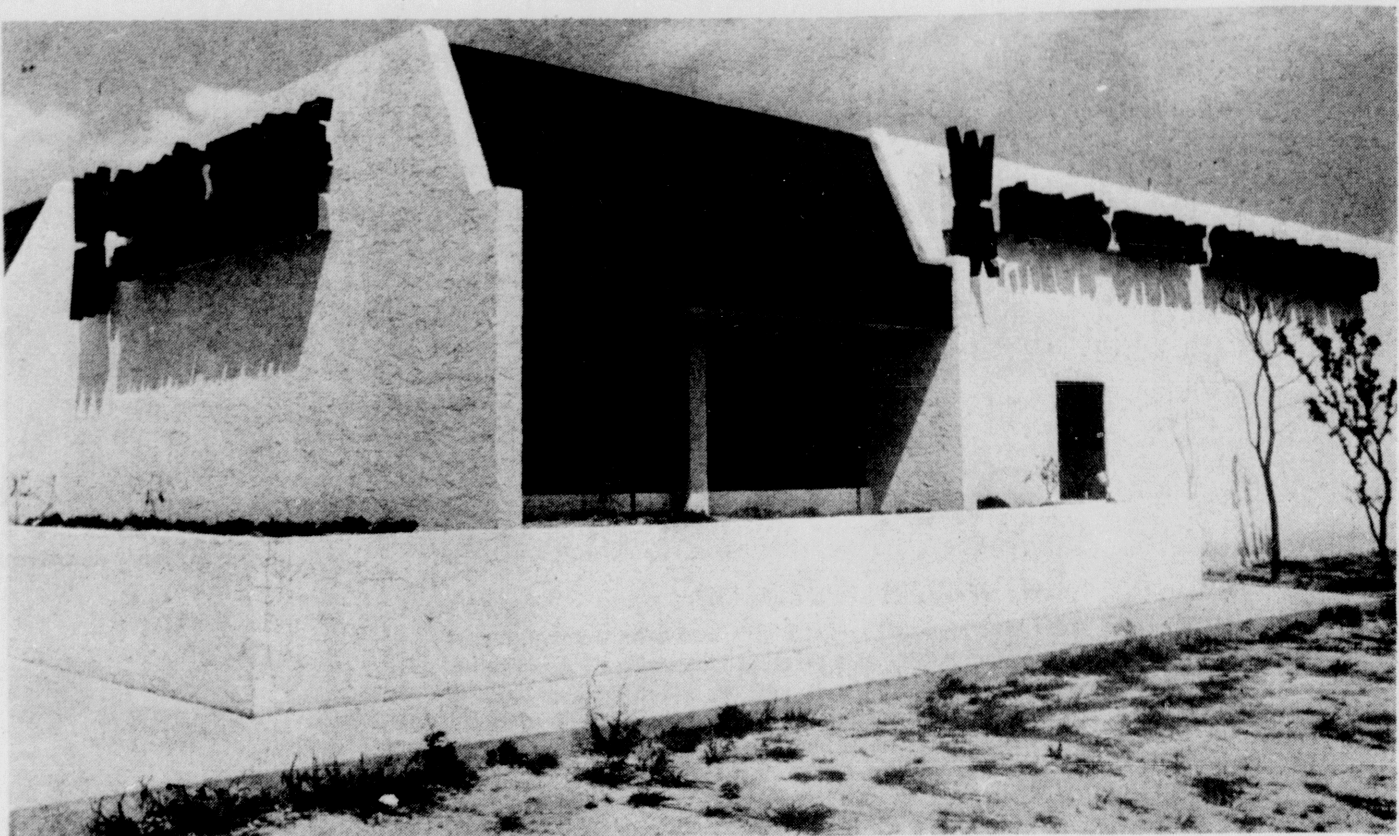

King's Table is under Christian management which has the philosophy of "Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give unto your bosom. For with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again."

International King's Table, the American Smorgasbord, offers all you can eat at reasonable prices. Both lunches and dinners are served with varied menus. (Staff Photo.)

In Liberty Bowl

Nebraska Nips Tar Heels, 21-17

By SUSAN WHITE
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Coach Tom Osborne knew his Nebraska Cornhuskers would have to do things differently to win the Liberty Bowl against a team that gave up an average of only 7.4 points per game this season. The changes the Nebraska coach made were seen quickly by the 49,456 fans in Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium Monday night. The Cornhuskers came out throwing ard, before the night was over, completed 14 of 17 passes for 161 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring passes from senior Randy Garcia, who replaced starter Tom Sorley in the fourth quarter, lifted Nebraska to a 21-17, come-from-behind win over the Tar Heels.

Garcia attempted only three passes and completed all of them, including a 10-yard touchdown toss to Curtis Craig and a game-winning 34-yard bomb to Tim Smith. Sorley threw 14 times, with 11 completions for 105 yards.

The change in tactics caught Coach Bill Dooley and his North Carolina squad off guard. But the North Carolina defenders, led by linebacker Buddy Curry with eight tackles and 10 assists, shut down I.M. Hipp, Nebraska's all-time, single-season rushing leader. They held Hipp to 52 yards on 18 carries and gave up only one touchdown on the ground — a 15-yard run by Dodie Donnell, who carried nine times for 59 yards.

Nebraska was equally effective in cutting off North Carolina's running game. Freshman tailback "Famous Amos" Lawrence, who rushed for 1,211 yards during the regular season, left the game with an injured ankle in the second quarter after carrying only eight times for 35 yards. Sophomore Doug Paschall, who replaced Lawrence in the lineup, ended up as the game's leading rusher with 77 yards in 16 attempts.

The Tar Heels' only touchdowns came on second-quarter passes from Matt Kupec, who completed seven of 11 throws for 75 yards. Kupec threw 10 yards to Bob Lumis and 12 yards to Brooks Williams. North Carolina also scored in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Tom Biddle and was ahead, 17-7, at the start of the final period.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, however, Donnie Cotton intercepted a Kupec pass. Osborne sent Garcia into the game with simple instructions. "I just told him to go out there and let 'em rip," the coach said. Garcia followed orders perfectly and immediately drove the Cornhuskers 74 yards to a touchdown.

'Cat Girls Scratch Sherman In Loop Basketball, 57-54

Tracy York came off the bench in the fourth quarter to score five key points in the Plano Wildcats' victory over Sherman in District 13-AAAA action Monday night. York entered the game in the fourth period and scored two points with less than a minute to play to break a 54-54 tie. She later scored a solo point by connecting on the front half of a one-and-one free throw to ice the game away for Coach Rita Barnes' Wildcats, 57-54.

"It is good to have somebody on the bench like Tracy that you can put in and she will come through for you. Her legs were killing her tonight, but she got us the winning points," Coach Barnes said. "I have to give credit to our depth to have people like her that can do a good job after coming in a game cold."

Plano had held a lead throughout the game and were on top 46-41 entering the final period. But, Sherman rallied to tie Plano at 50-50 and from there it was topsy-turvy until York, who was wearing a knee brace, put the game away for Plano.

Coach Barnes credited her forwards with a good game both offensively and defensively.

Mary Jo Vanderlinden, the only returning starter from last year's Class AAAA Regional Finalists, scored 32 points to pace the Wildcats. "Mary Jo played her best game of this year," Coach Barnes said. "She played well offensively and also did a good defensive job. She caused Sherman to make a lot of turnovers."

Other scorers included Melissa Bland with 12 points followed by Deedra House with eight points and York with five.

On the guard end of the court, Coach Barnes used newcomers Tammy Littrell and Cindy Anderson to contain potent Sherman.

"They are both new to the Varsity this year and this is just their second game to start. Our defense is coming together game by game," said Coach Barnes.

Janell Moore rounds out the guard trio. She has started all season.

Plano now posts a 2-1 loop record, same as Sherman. Plano is the defending district champion and will take a Christmas break before resuming play Dec. 27 in their own tournament.

According to Head Coach Terry Warner, "Our kids had their best meet of the year. We are really swimming well and hopefully the Christmas break will not slow us down."

Warrior Girls Sweep Tourney

Two girls were named to the all-tournament team from Williams High School, who took first place in the recent Ennis Junior Varsity Tournament.

Held Dec. 15-16-17, Williams High's sophomore girls basketball team was paced by Glenda Majors and Betsy Devoust. Both were named to the all-tournament team.

In the championship, Plano beat Richland 41-40. In games leading to the championship, Plano beat Iowa Park 57-35 and Cleburne 43-22.

In the championship game, Williams was behind by nine points entering the fourth quarter.

"We held them to four points in the fourth quarter and we made our freethrows work for us," Coach Foylene Spain said. "Freethrows tied the game for us and we went ahead by one point in the final minute."

"Richland had a chance to tie the game but the pressure got to them," added Coach Spain.

Glenda Majors led scoring for the Warriors with 16 points followed by Zirkelbach with 12 points, Botts with eight points, Betsy Devoust with three points and Davis with two points.

Pokes Eye Playoffs

By MIKE RABUN
UPI Sports Writer

DALLAS (UPI) — Last season the Dallas Cowboys drifted into the playoffs in a fairly aimless fashion.

This year, at least according to linebacker D.D. Lewis, their direction is firmly set.

"It is an altogether different situation this year," said Lewis. "Last year we didn't know where we were. Our offense broke down, our defense broke down against Atlanta late in the season. We went into the playoffs just hoping we could pull it off."

"This year we are playing well offensively, we are playing well defensively. Our attitude could not be better. We have no internal problems on the team."

"We have the attitude that it is time to let us out of the cage. We are ready for the fight. You could not ask for a better situation. And I'm thrilled to be a part of it."

Lewis sounds as if he is ready to play today. But he will have to wait until next Monday when the Cowboys host the Chicago Bears in the opening round of the playoffs.

And when Lewis next steps on the field he will be one of the many who will have to deal with the NFL's leading rusher — Walter Payton.

"Payton is the type of runner who needs just a little crease to break it all the way," said Lewis, a nine-year veteran who was the only Dallas linebacker returning this season who played in the same position last year.

"Against Payton you have to concentrate every minute and have people in pursuit. You can't relax. You can't assume, just because the play is going to the other side of the field, that somebody over there is going to make the tackle."

"I think we can really get keyed up to the challenge. To be able to hold a runner like Payton or O.J. Simpson or Franco Harris to something less than 100 yards is really something."

"It's kind of fun, really. It taxes your defense and it is a thrill when you can stop somebody like that. Payton and Tony Dorsett are in another intension as far as running backs go. You can't put them in a category with the good or great ones. They are in a league by themselves."

Lewis has spent many afternoons trying to guard Minnesota running back Chuck Foreman, and he thinks Payton represents more of a threat.

"Payton is so quick and explosive that I think he can do more than Foreman. He has more speed, so if he gets just a little bit of room he can score from anywhere. Foreman might not be able to break all the way as much."

"I really haven't been all that impressed with Payton's ability to catch the ball. But, having said that, he will probably catch 10 passes on me next week."

Burlap makes rug bases

By Polly Cramer

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY — While cleaning out the basement I found a lot of large clean burlap bags that are in good condition. They must be good for something but I cannot think what. Any suggestions? — MARGARET.

DEAR MARGARET — Heavy closely woven burlap bags can be used for the base for hooking rugs. Burlap also makes a good lining for crocheted or needlepoint rugs. I have seen burlap wall hangings embroidered with quite smart designs done in wool. I am sure the readers will be coming forth with many suggestions as they are always so generous about sharing with others. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — I disagree with Ethel about rubbing potatoes for baking with fine steel wool, since when using it for other purposes I have gotten small pieces in my fingers. Why wouldn't the same thing happen with potatoes? I use a plastic ball for such scrubbing and it works fine. — MRS.G.W.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is to make a hurried stop at the grocery for just one or two things and then find someone ahead of me in the express lane with more items than specified for that line. My blood pressure really goes up when that party waits until the checker states the amount of her bill and then she gets out her checkbook and leisurely fills out the entire check while those behind her fume. The check should have been written with only the amount left blank. Her time may not be valuable but it often is to those waiting behind her. — EDITH.

DEAR POLLY — Last week when scrubbing my floor I got tired of rubbing off the black heel marks until I had a bright idea. I made the marks good and wet and then used an eraser to erase them. This really saved time and energy. — GAIL.

DEAR POLLY — I use a long white child's sock on my rolling pin when rolling pie crust and the job is much easier.

We make popcorn taste even better by using seasoning salt on it instead of regular salt and it also adds a pretty pinkish glow. — MRS.R.C.

DEAR POLLY — A little red food coloring added to the water used for watering geraniums gives them a nicer brighter color when they bloom.

When scraping new potatoes soak them in fairly warm water for a few minutes and find they scrape faster and better. — MRS.O.W.

DEAR POLLY — To remove labels from jars and bottles I lay a dripping wet dish cloth over the jars that I have put in the sink. I leave them for about an hour and the labels lift right off. I use such jars for many things. — MRS.H.P.

ASTRO-GRAPH

Bernice Bede Osol

Dec. 21, 1977

Someone who has great faith in you may impart some confidential information this coming year that could prove rather profitable. You will know exactly how to use it to your best advantage.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) There's a likelihood you may have to return later and do it again if you insist on using "step-savers" at work today. Do it slowly, but do it right. Find out more about yourself by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph. Mail 50 cents for each and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, P.O. Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify your birth sign.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Invite old friends if you're having a holiday dinner or open house. You'll find they're more comfortable than your new pals.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You might have a rough day at the office today. Walk away and forget it. You'll feel so much better by locking your worries in your desk.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You're likely to be very easily distracted and thus quite forgetful today. Write down what you must do so you won't overlook anything.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) It's very unwise today to count on anything you don't have in hand. If you have to beat the bushes, you may find out too late your bird has flown.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) The prospects of someone making decisions for you is intolerable today. Avoid the problem. Keep on top of your responsibilities.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) "Don't Volunteer" is an axiom known to every present and former GI. Today you might and wished you hadn't.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Treat warmly those you meet for the first time today. Unless they sense your feelings are genuine, there may not be a second meeting.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 12) Doing anything contrary to your usual conduct may upset one who holds you in high regard. Stick to your script. Preserve your image.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) It looks like you may not have profited from experience, by repeating a mistake. Try to remember this time so you won't have to learn it again.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If someone's managing something of value for you today, be doubly sure you know what they're doing, or you'll have to cover their mistakes.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Stick to your word if you've promised your mate you even do something today, even though it may inconvenience you. It will be easier.
